

NATIONAL & LOCAL WETLAND INVENTORIES IN THE SERVICE OF MEDITERRANEAN WETLAND ASSESSMENT AND MONITORING: THE SERBIAN CASE

VENUE: University of Belgrade, Faculty of Biology, September 28, 2007

AGENDA

SESSION 1: Opening
09:30	Registration
10:00	Opening of the Meeting Prof. dr Brigita Petrov, Project Manager University of Belgrade, Faculty of Biology
10:05	Workshop Objectives Ms Lena Hatziiordanou, Project Coordinator EKBY, Greece
10:10	Greetings Prof. dr Gordana Cvijić, Dean University of Belgrade, Faculty of Biology Prof. dr Lidija Amidžić, Director Institute of Nature Protection of Serbia Mr Dušan Pajkić, Minister Assistant for Nature protection and nature resources Ministry of Environmental Protection of Serbia
SESSION 2: The MedWet initiative and the Pan Mediterranean wetland inventory
10:30	The Pan Mediterranean Wetland Inventory and the MedWet Data Policy Mrs Eleni Fitoka EKBY, Greece
11:00	The MedWet Web Information System: A tool for wetland data sharing, management and processing Mr Yiannis Kapanidis EKBY, Greece
11:15	Coffee break
SESSION 3: Wetland inventory actions in Serbia
11:30	Status of Wetland Conservation and management in Serbia Mr Nikola Stojnić Institute of Nature Protection of Serbia
11:45	Background and findings of the Wetland Inventory Project in Serbia Prof. dr Brigita Petrov, Project Manager University of Belgrade, Faculty of Biology
12:00	Primary results of the national wetland inventory using remote sensing tools Mr Yiannis Kapanidis EKBY, Greece
12:15	Results of the training in wetland inventory using modern technology and proposed follow-up activities Ms Lena Hatziiordanou, Project Coordinator EKBY, Greece
12:30	Round table discussion
13:30	Buffet lunch

